BRAND NAME MATERIALS LIST

Rhode Island Organic Certification Program

This list is a guidance document prepared by the RI DEM Division of Agriculture to assist producers in complying with the National Organic Program. The products appearing on this list have been reviewed by the Rhode Island Organic Certification Program or the Organic Materials Review Institute and appear to be allowed, restricted, or prohibited by the National Organic Standards based on the information provided. This list is not official NOP policy. It is not all-inclusive and does not endorse specific products. The certified operation is ultimately responsible for demonstrating that all products used by the operation meet the requirements of the National Organic Program. Products must be listed on the operation's organic plan prior to use.
